The inspection station just below this city as been suspended by order of the National Board of Health. The very inefficient and casion, from time to time, to point out and of quarantine stations all along the river at this time of the year is of absolute necessity.

The one at this point is probably of greater importance than almost any other, from the fact that infected persons boarding steamers are Misses Julia McClary, of Texas; Mamie Jane Scott, of Virginia; Naun e Lue McClelland, of Memphis; Dora Thomas, of Cranesfact that injected persons boarding steamers at New Orleans would have clearly defined symptoms of the contagion by the time the phis; Eddie and Nannie Fentress, Misses we believe that the effice sought by him, boat reached this point. Here especially, then, the very strictest examination should be made of all boats passing up the river. To this end the Commercial has pointed out the vital importance of effective and compe-tent service here; that this point was of too nuch importance to be placed in the hands f either an inexperienced or incompetent man. That such has been the case we have the authority of our local board for saying. But now at a time most critical, when dar ger to the whole up-country may be immi-nent, this important station has been susended by the order of Dr. Reilley, of the National Quarantine service.
